Dear Friends,

A very Happy Thanksgiving to one and all, and welcome to our visitors who are with us this weekend as we celebrate the Great American Feast that transcends all boundaries, reminding us that we are a nation full of thankfulness and gratitude.

I would like to extend a big thank you to all of who generously contributed to our recent Thanksgiving food drive for East Spring Branch Food Pantry. As of this writing, there are 233 food bags being distributed to families in need. This has contributed in a most wonderful way to many people's Thanksgiving. The outreach of St. Catherine of Siena is heartwarming indeed!

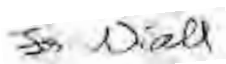

A special thanks to Fr. Ronan Newbold from Holy Name Retreat Center on Bunker Hill for taking my place this weekend while I am across the pond celebrating a wedding for one of my nieces. Actually, I haven't been in Ireland since this time last year; and as some of you probably know, my plans to be there for yet another wedding over Labor Day weekend were washed away in the Harvey Flood! A very minor detail in comparison to the upheaval many of you have had to endure. But alas, I am ready for this one. So I will be celebrating Thanksgiving "Irish style" in Dublin.

The parish office will be open this week, except for Wednesday, November 29, when the office will be closed. Speaking of schedules and such, our regular daily Mass schedule will resume this Thursday, November 30, when life begins to go back to normal again and the tryptophan begins to wear off, at least until the Christmas season is upon us.

To help ease you back into a normal routine, we will have our usual Saturday Evening Mingle next Saturday, December 2, when we can do some catching up on our Thanksgiving shenanigans and do a little relaxing before we start planning our Christmas shopping, menu and guest lists. Of course, get those letters written to Santa, or does he now accept email, tweets and the like? We will also have breakfast the following morning, Sunday, December 3, when CCE resumes.

Enjoy what is left of the Thanksgiving weekend and get in some relaxing and enjoyable time with each other. I will see you all later in the week (Thursday) or next weekend at either our Mingle or Breakfast and/or during my usual "holy schmoozing" in the narthex before/after the weekend Masses.

God bless,

CHRISTMAS FLOWER DONATIONS can be made in honor of a loved one or in memory of a loved one. Envelopes are due in the Parish Office on or before December 17, 2017. It is important to us to list the names of those you are remembering with a flower donation correctly in our bulletin, so please PRINT your dedications. The list of those being remembered with a Christmas Flower Donation will be printed in the bulletin for EPIPHANY SUNDAY. If you have any questions, please email Marcela Swihart at marcela@stcatherine-houston.org

HARVEY RELIEF EFFORTS

As the holidays approach and we all think about giving to others, consider a donation to St. Catherine of Siena Church, Harvey disaster relief ministry. There are many families in our area still struggling, living in temporary housing, not able to celebrate the upcoming holidays in their own homes. A one-time gift of any amount is appreciated. The online process is simple and does not require the donor to setup a Faith Direct account. Spread the word to friends, family, coworkers, and all those with a generous heart.
